AGRIM

About Agrim Foods

Agrim Foods, a part of the Hulas Group, has grown into one of Nepal's most trusted names in food staples with a strong domestic presence. Our portfolio includes Rice, Chakki Atta, Milla Atta, Chiura, Suji, and Maida, which are already a part of thousands of Nepali households.

Looking ahead, our ambition is clear: to carry the taste and authenticity of Nepal to global markets, beginning with Europe. This plan sets the foundation for strengthening our domestic presence while building Agrim into a brand that resonates with both the South Asian diaspora and international consumers who are increasingly seeking authentic, quality food staples.

Mission

To bring authentic, high-quality, and affordable food products from Nepal to global households.

Vision

To be Nepal's most trusted and admired food brand, recognized globally for delivering authentic, wholesome quality and carrying the essential taste of home to every market we serve.

Our Core Values

At Agrim Foods, these core values guide every decision we make and every product we create. From quality and taste to community and cultural pride, we're committed to nourishing Nepali families today and for generations to come.

Taste & Nutrition

Our products deliver not just delightful flavors, but also the goodness of essential nutrients to support healthy living.

Sustainability

We respect the earth and future generations by ensuring our sourcing and production practices are responsible and mindful.

Wholesome Quality

We believe in using the best, natural ingredients to nourish families with pure, authentic taste.

Cultural Pride

We honor Nepal's rich culinary traditions and celebrate them in every product we create.

Commitment

We stand with Nepali mothers and families, understanding their needs and sharing their kitchen journey.

Our Products

Every product we mill is a direct reflection of our core mission and values. We are committed to bringing authentic, high-quality, and affordable food staples from Nepal to global households, starting with our trusted flours.

Our extensive product portfolio is built on a commitment to delivering essential food staples that families rely on. We mill, process, and package a comprehensive range that includes:
